Research Interests

---

My research focuses on uncertainty quantification in complex systems that arise in computational science and engineering, with an emphasis on deep generative modeling. By integrating deep learning and scientific computing, my group develops scalable sampling techniques for high-dimensional distributions. This work enables Bayesian inference in large-scale PDE-based inverse problems (e.g., seismic and medical imaging) and provides a principled framework for building reliable, uncertainty-aware AI models for real-world applications.

Academic Appointments

University of Central Florida
Tenure-Track Assistant Professor
Department of Computer Science

August 2025 – Present
Orlando, FL, USA

Rice University
Simons Postdoctoral Fellow
Department of Computational Applied Mathematics & Operations Research
Jointly hosted by Maarten V. de Hoop and Richard G. Baraniuk

August 2022 – July 2025
Houston, TX, USA

Education

---

Georgia Institute of Technology
Ph.D. in Computational Science and Engineering
Advised by Felix J. Herrmann

August 2022
Atlanta, GA, USA

University of Tehran
M.Sc. in Geophysics

March 2016
Tehran, Iran

Sharif University of Technology
B.Sc. in Electrical Engineering

August 2013
Tehran, Iran
